Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

A. Plan of Operations

Plan of Operations

The Company amended its Articles of Incorporation to change its primary purpose from a mining company to a holding company on February 20, 2014. In line with its new primary purpose, the Company will be on the continuous look out for possible investments in other areas of interest while continuously maintaining some of its existing mining tenements.

The Company, as part of its mining business model, will still continue to identify joint venture partners to co-finance the exploration of its existing mining claims while ceding a percentage ownership to the joint venture partner. This will free up cash flows for further exploration of its other properties or for acquisition of mining tenements or other areas of interest.

The Company is currently setting-up parameters to identify businesses in other areas of interest that it may possibly venture into. Once a potential business or opportunity has been identified, it will be subjected to due diligence and a comprehensive analysis of its business model, prospects, management, financial performance and risks. Once it has passed the parameters set by the management, it will be presented to the Board for approval. The Board and management will venture into new businesses and or opportunities bearing in mind its main objective of improving shareholder value.

Last May 6, 2011, the Company raised Php238,104,642.75 from various investors representing 25% of the total amount of subscriptions of Php952,418,571.00. Proceeds from these various private placement transactions will cover the capital requirements for the Company's expansion and development programs. The Company's cash requirement is sufficient for the next twelve months.

Currently, there are no plans to conduct any research and development for a particular project, but the Company may conduct research and development for new projects and or businesses.

The Company does not expect to purchase or sell a plant or any significant equipment and does not expect to have significant changes in the number of its employees.

On 6 November 2013 and 20 December 2013, the Company's Board of Directors and stockholders, respectively, approved the following amendments to the Company's articles of Incorporation:

- (1) the amendment of Article II in order to change its primary purpose from a mining company into a holding company in order to enable the Company to make investments in areas of other interest; and
- (2) the amendment of Article IV in order to reduce the number of directors from eleven (11) to seven (7).

On February 20, 2014, SEC approved the amendments of the Company's Articles of Incorporation.

- Amendment of Article II changing the Parent Company's primary purpose from a mining company into a holding company.
- Amendment of Article VI reducing the number of directors from 11 directors to seven directors.

The amendments in the Parent Company's Articles of Incorporation were approved by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on February 20, 2014.

Status of Operations

The Parent Company currently has no active source of income as its subsidiaries are non-operating as of September 30, 2025, December 31, 2024. The Group incurred net loss ₱851,726 and ₱1,499,379 in September 30, 2025, and 2024 respectively, resulting to deficit of ₱2,785,131,501 and ₱2,784,283,265 as at September 30, 2025, and December 31, 2024, respectively. These conditions indicate that a material uncertainty exists which may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern and therefore, the Group may be unable to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business.

As an investment holding company, the Parent Company will continue to evaluate various business opportunities and ventures that are viable, growing, and profitable. The Parent Company's strategy will be to invest, buy-in or acquire businesses where it will at least own a significant stake or interest of the investee's outstanding capital. The said investment amount will allow the Parent Company to recognize its proportionate share of the equitized earnings from its investee companies. Its capital raising plans are intended to provide investable funds and working capital for its prospective projects.

Management assesses that the going concern assumption remains to be appropriate as the Group has positive working capital enough to support the operating expenses of the Group while management continues to identify business opportunities that the Group may undertake.

Financial Risk Management Objectives and Policies

The Group's principal financial instruments comprise cash and cash equivalents. The main purpose of these financial instruments is to finance the Group's operations. The Group has other financial assets and liabilities such as, advances to/from related parties and accrued expenses, which arise directly from operations.

The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments are credit risk and liquidity risk. The BOD reviews and approves policies for managing each of these risks and they are summarized below:

Credit Risk

Credit risk refers to the potential loss arising from any failure by counterparties to fulfill their obligations as and when they fall due. It is inherent to the business as potential losses may arise due to the failure of counterparties to fulfill their obligations on maturity dates or due to adverse market conditions.

The Group's exposure to credit risk arises from default of the counterparty, with a maximum exposure equivalent to the carrying amount of cash with banks, receivables and due from related parties.

The Group trades only with related parties and creditworthy financial institutions and third parties.

The table below shows the maximum exposure to on and off credit risk exposures of the Group, without considering the effects of collateral, credit enhancements and other credit mitigation techniques.

	September 2025	2024
Cash and cash equivalents	₱12,015,699	₱12,982,448
Receivables	—	—
Advances to related parties	200,133	—
	₱12,215,832	₱12,982,448

Credit quality of Financial Assets

The credit quality of financial assets is managed by the Group using credit ratings and is classified into three: High grade, which has no history of default; Standard grade, which pertains to accounts with history of one or two defaults; and Substandard grade, which pertains to accounts with history of at least three payment defaults or no repayment dates.

The Group has assessed the credit quality of its cash with banks and in trust as high grade since these are deposited in reputable banks and a brokerage firm, which have a low probability of insolvency. All other financial assets at amortized cost had been provided with full allowance as management due to these financial assets being long outstanding and the debtors are in default.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group could not be able to settle or meet its obligations on time or at a reasonable price. Management is responsible for liquidity, funding as well as settlement management.

The Group's exposure to liquidity risk relate to raising funds. The Group manages its liquidity profile to be able to service maturing debts. To cover its financing requirements, the Group intends to use internally generated funds and available short-term credit facilities.

As part of its liquidity risk management, the Group regularly evaluates its projected and actual cash flows. It also continuously assesses conditions in the financial markets for opportunities to pursue fund raising activities, in case any requirements arise.

Capital Management

The primary objective of the Group's management is to ensure that it maintains healthy capital ratios in order to support its business and maximize shareholder value. The Group manages its capital structure and makes appropriate adjustments in light of changes in economic conditions.

To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue new shares. No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes for managing capital in 2025 and 2024.
